

Emerald Trip to Expressions

Thursday 9th May 2019

Kia ora Emerald Whānau,

Expressions have an amazing new exhibition coming to Upper Hutt that incorporates work from an Artist who is from Upper Hutt, Te reo Māori and the alphabet! Couldn't be more perfectly pitched for our little ones. (Extra bonus for us is having one of our Mums as the educator :D) The date we have booked is Thursday 23rd May. The total cost for the trip is $4.50 Claire Mepham is the amazing educator down there and has planned some cool stuff for us.

We need money paid and permission slips before: Friday 17th May

(You can also use the kindo app to make payment and give permission)
